

This is a snapshot of aviation for women in the closing days of the 20th Century. Today, after a decade into the 21st Century things are improving for women in aviation, but there is still a way to go. The women such as those featured in this book and others are the instruments of these improvements. My hope is that women reading this book will get inspiration and courage from the words of their sisters and go out and do great things in the world of aviation.
